

42ND ANNUAL CELEBRATION OF AMERICAN CRAFTS: PROSPECTUS 2010

The Celebration of American Crafts is an annual juried exhibition and sale sponsored by Creative Arts Workshop (CAW). The Workshop is a non-profit regional art school serving more than 3,000 students each year. The exhibition is held in CAW's handsome two-story Hilles Gallery.

A prestigious showcase for professional craft artists, the Celebration presents fine contemporary American crafts in every medium. To maintain the high quality of the Celebration, the selection process is competitive, with a limited number of exhibitors chosen to represent each medium. The Celebration attracts nearly 10,000 visitors from all over the Northeast, and media coverage is extensive. To give you some background, copies of reviews of previous exhibitions are enclosed. Work is sold on a consignment basis, and CAW retains 40% of each sale. These funds go toward the support of the community art school.

JURY PROCESS

Work is selected either from the actual work or from digital images.

ACTUAL WORK

Jurying takes place in June and July during the first week of each of these months. Work to be juried is to be delivered to CAW on the Monday of the first week in the month and picked up the following Friday. Please include: a list of items, their retail prices, your name, address, telephone number and a recent resume.

DIGITAL SUBMISSION

Please send 3 to 6 digital images on CD which best represent the work you are submitting. Include an overall view and a detail of each piece. Suggested resolution is 4" x 6" at 300 dpi. Be sure to indicate: sizes, technique(s), materials used and retail prices. Please also include a recent resume in Word or PDF format. Images submitted after July 31 cannot be considered. Contact the office regarding alternative methods of submitting images.

FEE

There is no entry fee.
